

CLO Studios present
“New Directions for the Decarb Decade”

SPEAKERS' PROGRAM

Using vehicle-to-load power contributed by an Ioniq 5 vehicle

10.00-10.10 am	Welcome: Anne Kennedy, Chair, Zero Emissions Noosa
10.10-10.20	The Hon. Mark Bailey, Minister for Transport and Main Roads
10.20-10.30	Noosa Deputy Mayor Frank Wilkie
10.30-10.35	Sandy Bolton MP
10.35-10.40	Representative from Noosa Junction Association
10.40-11.30	The Big Picture Climate Change: a portal to sustainability Wayne Wescott CEO Greenfleet EVs: Common and Real Concerns John Murray EV enthusiast and writer
11.30-12.20	The EV Revolution: Exploring 2 & 3 wheeled EVs Andrea Herklots everyBody eBikes Ben Silver Benzina Zero Wolfgang Roffman e-Motion Concepts
12.20-1.10	EVs: Imagination and Innovation Think hydrogen, engine conversions and battery-swapping *ICE conversion to EV Ed Wright Matthew Flinders Anglican College and James Pauly Traction EV *Hydrogen-fuelled EVs BJ Siem QFleet, Queensland Government *Pioneering swap-n-go battery technology Lex Forsyth Janus Electric
1.10-2.00	Australia 2030: Can we catch up? A leading advocate describes Australia's race to catch up in the EV world. David Waterworth advocate at CleanTechnica https://cleantechnica.com/author/davidwaterworth/